Follow your own path to the Official Trails Capital of British Columbia

The story these experiences weave is one that is all about connection – to our community, to our history, to our culture and to our special and sacred natural places that we're bound to protect.

Around here, there's a trail for everyone

Outdoor recreation and spectacular vistas take centre stage, but what's unique is how we bring them all together. From lakeside rail trails to mountainside singletrack; from hillside hiking paths to downtown art strolls, Vernon's one-of-a-kind trail network will get you connected, naturally.

Okanagan Rail Trail - Mostly flat gravel accessible trail for all ages and stages.

Grey Canal Trail- Follow the former irrigation system on 50+ kms of trail.

Mountain Biking- Endless singletrack to explore for beginners to expert riders.

Kalamalka Lake Paddle Trail - Explore the shoreline in a calm, boat-free zone.

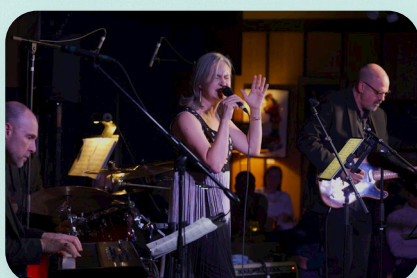

Connected Naturally through Arts, Culture and History

Sundog Festival of Arts & Culture September 20 - 21

The second annual Sundog Festival brings an immersive experience to elevate and celebrate arts and culture in Greater Vernon. Polson Park is transformed into bustling outdoor venue for live music from artists locally and across Canada. Enjoy an artisan market in the park during the day and a variety of fun activities held at local businesses. This event kicks off the Culture Days celebration in BC and across Canada.

Celebrating 25 Years of Jazz in Vernon

2024 marks a special year for the Vernon Jazz Club, 25 years of live jazz at their historic venue in the heart of downtown. The Vernon Jazz Club is one of just three dedicated live jazz venues in British Columbia. The speakeasy vibes offer an exceptional experience of live music. This year they will be hosting a special event to celebrate their 25th anniversary around September

Frostival Winter Festival November 29

Stroll through the streets of downtown Vernon full of holiday lights and fun activities for all ages. Enjoy live music, family-friendly activities and performers on the pedestrian-only Main Street. Follow along with the Downtown Vernon Association as more details are announced for this new winter event.
